

1940's Variety Show

Description

Corporal Gina Kay and Sergeant Dom Collins welcome you to participate in this wonderful celebration of the 1940's and the wartime years.

How about something a bit different? A 1940's Variety Show performed by two fabulous entertainers – Gina Kay and Dom Collins. The show features songs from the era – some wartime songs too – that everyone can sing along to (we provide the songsheets!!!)

A plethora of costume changes, a tap-dance or two and a liberal helping of George Formby and his ukulele. We also provide the bunting, the flags for folks to wave about – and of course a truly fabulous evening (or day!) of good, clean, fun-packed, audience-participation entertainment! Don't let this one pass you by!
