

Northern Sopranos

Description

'The Northern Sopranos' specialise in Opera, Classical Crossover, Musical Theatre and Big Band Swing and beyond. The duo was born out of a longstanding friendship of two highly experienced, talented solo artists with a unique blend of individual experience, spanning over 3 decades in the music industry.

With a love of performance and musical talent, inherited from their grandparents, Lisa and Sarah will take you on a musical journey, through their breath-taking vocals, beautiful harmonies, glitz and glamour and a touch of humour, guaranteed to deliver an evening of outstanding musical entertainment.

Through the unforgettable genres of opera, classical crossover, musical theatre, big band swing and beyond, this versatile, charismatic duo will have you on the edge of your seats; laughing and crying in equal measure, guaranteed to leave you feeling at least 10 years younger.

Their shows: Swing and Soprano and Leading ladies, are celebrations of the most loved hits of these legendary eras.

'The Swing and Soprano show' pays Tribute to some of the greatest and well-loved Opera, classical Crossover and Big band swing. With music from Puccini, Lloyd Webber and Cole Porter.

'The Leading Ladies Show' pays Tribute to some of Greatest female artists across the decades, such as Streisand, Garland, Celine Dion, Sarah Brightman, Ella Fitzgerald, Maria Callas to name but a few.
