

The Requesters

Description

While playing in their popular function band “Real Class”™, the boys always used to let their audience request the playlist! Now in a brand new twist and with a new name The Requesters – not only can the audience request a song or two – they can sing it with the live band!! Remember the name – The Requesters!

And! the boys will bring along the words on a huge screen so that nobody forgets the lyrics!!

Phil Barrett, Tony Crabtree and Paul Farnell are a trio of the UK’s most eminent session musicians.

Bandleader and Musical Director Phil was one of Scandinavia’s top record producers during the 80’s amassing a wall of silver, gold and platinum discs. Phil plays more than 10 different instruments and is a superb vocalist whose massive range is able to cover pop, swing, rock – even opera...

A child prodigy, Tony was a session drummer in L.A. back in the 80’s and playing on many multi-awarded recordings. Tony is also a master of latin percussion, guitar, trumpet and an excellent vocalist to boot.

Paul Farnell on bass guitar and vocals has spent a lot of time playing with some famous names from the 60’s – The Easybeats and Herman’s Hermits and has played all over the World.
