Whichever show you choose, you will be in for a triple talent treat. We give you 'Trilogy'

Do you want to party like you've never partied before? If so then we have the perfect trio for the best party night in town! Three super amazing singers, Lee Brady, Tommy Barron and Hefin Roberts have now come together to perform their Trilogy Party Trio Show. The trio are mega talented professional singers in their own right. As they have been friends for many years it seemed the obvious next step to put a quality show together never thinking it would quickly become so popular and so much in demand.

Word got round where the trio were appearing and within weeks they secured two residencies packing each of the venues to the rafters and delighting the audiences from their opening song. Customers have complimented them saying it's the best show they have seen in many years and are coming back time and time again. Humour, ad-libbing and audience interaction is all part of this professional show and every song is sung to perfection featuring their stunning three part harmonies. They have carefully choreographed each song in their sets to make this both a musical and visual treat. The show is ideal for fly backs, cruises, casinos, holiday parks, golf clubs, clubs and private functions.
