

Ben Thompson

Description

Ben Thompson is a talented young musician/singer and has been performing professionally for over ten years. Now working solo, Ben has also had the experience of working in several bands in the North West. Although a performing musician at heart, Ben is also a prolific music producer/engineer where he can use his extensive experience in the technical side of the industry and has produced high quality sound and visuals.

Ben can cover an eclectic mix of music to suit any venue and occasion. He covers music from the 50's and 60s, Rock'n' Roll, Soul, Swing, Contemporary Pop, Rock, and Indie. One of Ben's favourite styles is his stripped down acoustic guitar arrangements which is ideal for restaurants, lounge bars, weddings and private functions.

Many will remember Ben from his performance as barmaid Michelle Connor's son Ryan Connor in Coronation Street. Ben was in the programme for over four years before leaving the show to pursue a full-time career in his first love – music.

Ben can be booked for any type of venue or event and his versatility and natural good looks and charm make him an ideal choice.
