

Hefin Roberts

Description

Hefin is a well-established professional comedy vocalist based in North Wales having recently returned from playing to packed venues in Benidorm for 12 years. In the past, Hefin has risen from being a Redcoat to supporting Bernard Manning, Joe Pasquale, Jess Conrad, Jim Bowen and Jimmy Cricket. He also spent several months working on the original 'Love-Boat' (the Southern Cross).

From the second he walks on stage his spontaneous and non-stop humour will have you roaring with laughter. His topical observations, quick one-liners, cheeky chap repartee and musical comedy make Hefin a brilliant all-round showman.

Comedy isn't Hefin's only talent though. His vocal ability is excellent ranging from his superb take on Neil Diamond through to some challenging classical and musical songs all impressively performed with perfection.

Hefin is ideal for cruises, cabaret evenings, comedy nights, holiday parks, hotels, club nights and private functions.
