

Tom Morrison

Description

Tom's versatility means you will get the performance YOU want. The most important thing to Tom is that you're left having had the event of your dreams. His set list offers everything from Soul and Motown to classic pop and current charts. Tom has an interactive style and a quick witted humour which always has the audience joining in or if it's a more laid back performance you are looking for then he can cater for the mood and atmosphere you are looking for. For those extra special events Tom can learn a particular song of your liking.

Tom's charismatic personality coupled with his effortless performing style makes him the ideal singer for parties and special events. His exceptional voice has taken him across the UK and beyond working and hosting many events for well known organisations and celebrities such as Billy Ocean, The Real Thing and Aswad. He has worked extensively in Africa and New York working for various charities that are dear to his heart. Whilst in New York he performed in many piano bars which reignited his passion for singing and on his return to the UK he decided to go professional and the rest as they say is history!
