

Forever Freddie

Description

The Forever Freddie tribute show takes you through the amazing life story of the extrovert and iconic global superstar Freddie Mercury and Queen. Joe Tilly sings and performs the rock and pop classics that will live on forever – hence the show name Forever Freddie.

Forever Freddie is now recognised as one of the UK's top showmen and he has totally nailed Freddie's 3 octave vocals, trademark flamboyant moves and incredible showmanship. Each song is performed with such perfect accuracy that you really believe you are there with the real Freddie Mercury. All stage costumes are carefully chosen to recreate the typical Freddie look. The legendary crown and union jack robe completes the show's finale.

If you are looking for a true professional, top quality Freddie Mercury tribute show that has all the authentic theatrical style of the greatest rock singer of all time, combined with lots of audience participation, then look no further. Forever Freddie will be a great choice for any occasion.

Forever Freddie is available as a solo performer or with his world class live band. Ideal for live music venues, theatres, hotels, festivals, casinos, cruises, flybacks and private parties.

Unbranded publicity and videos available for agents and events companies.
