

Mark as Barlow

Description

The heavy Cheshire twang in Gary's voice – both speaking and singing is a difficult call for most vocalists – and convincing 'Garys' are hard to find. Luckily, Mark has just the right set of vocal cords to convince and he just happens to have 'the look' to match. Further to appearing in Take That tribute bands, Mark has more recently followed a solo career path where he now performs all of the best Gary Barlow tunes (of course, some of those are hits from Take That!) A favourite artiste for young and old alike.
