

Nearly Paloma

Description

With the same eccentric dresses to that of Paloma and including costume changes mid show for that "ultimate live show appeal," Nearly Paloma certainly knows how to entertain you and your guests. This immaculately produced show includes the typical light hearted Paloma banter and audience participation that is exciting and dramatic in every way. Whether you are looking for a show that is classy and demure or something more upbeat and sassy, Nearly Paloma guarantees that she will have everyone entertained and on the dance floor

Having performed throughout the UK & Internationally, at a variety of venues from luxury hotels and 5 star resorts, Mathew Street Festival 3 years running to over 40,000 people, for celebrities like Kim Marsh, Royston Blythe, Sports Personalities such as AP McCoy, Willie Carson and Sir Alex Ferguson and blue chip companies like Barclays Bank and Racing UK, Nearly Paloma is an expert when it comes to performing.

Additional show options are also available with modern covers sets that feature songs from the 80s to present day for dancing, or laid back performances suitable for restaurants and corporate dinners.

Nearly Paloma is the ideal professional tribute act to book for your special event!
