

Red Piano Tour

Description

Michael hails from Weybridge, Surrey and attended the prestigious 'Sylvia Young Theatre School' from an early age where he started to learn his craft as a singer/actor/musician.

Whilst studying there he performed in numerous West End shows and upon leaving the school he won the role of 'Nigel' on the No.1 tour of 'The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole aged 13 3/4?.'

Now with over 30 years' experience in the entertainment business, Michael is sought after for Weddings, Corporate Events, Black Tie Dinners and Cabaret Shows.

In recent years he has performed on various cruise ships and also spent 5 years on the cabaret circuit in Tenerife where he met his now wife Angie. They now reside in Derbyshire along with their three sons.

Michael is a genuine all round entertainer. Since 2018 he has been performing the 'Elton John, Red Piano Tour' tribute show. Featuring all the best music from the great man together with fabulous costumes, lights, sound and of course... The iconic red grand piano!
