

Rory Jackson

Description

Rory J Jackson is a professional Michael Jackson tribute artist, dancer, singer, look-a-like and impersonator. Ranked as the Worlds Greatest Michael Jackson dancer! And also nick named as The Dancing Machine!! and he truly lives up to this name! Rory J can perform his Michael Jackson tribute show anywhere in the UK and Worldwide. He can perform to perfection in any type of venue that can accommodate a tribute act or band.

Rory J specializes mainly in the BAD Era of Michael Jackson's persona and career from 1988 to the early 90's but he can and will sing and perform any Michael Jackson song you can name! The show is professionally produced and includes several costume changes throughout. Thousands of pounds have been spent on the production of this incredible show and Rory J's costumes are exact replicas of MJ's legendary stage wear. All backing tracks are re-recorded exclusively and of the highest quality.

Rory J is the same height, build and weight as Michael Jackson standing at 5ft 9 inch with real hair, eye brows and hairline and indeed a real natural haircut which is permed to precision and maintained in the BAD Era hairstyle. It is genuinely 100% his own hair! No extensions or hair pieces are needed which makes Rory's hairstyle the closest to Michael Jackson's head of hair and giving him the perfect look-a-like appearance. Rory has MJ's magical and charismatic stage presence and will make you feel like the man himself is right there dancing in the flesh before your very eyes!
